What Are The Settlement Benefits And Terms? Under the Settlement, Defendants have agreed to pay $700,000.00 into a Settlement Fund which will be distributed to Class Members who submit valid Claims, after deducting the Class Representative's Service Award, Class Counsel's attorneys' fees and expenses, and settlement administration notice and administration costs, if such awards are approved by the Court. All Class Members may submit Claims to receive cash payments. Class Members who believe they suffered out-of-pocket expenses as a result of the Data Incident may claim up to $5,000 (subject to pro rata adjustment) for the reimbursement of sufficiently documented expenses. Class Members who spent time dealing with misuse of their personal information as a result of the Data Incident may claim up to $100. Class Members who can prove verified fraudulent activity as a result of the Data Incident may claim up to $5,000 with documented proof. Class Members who were residents of California at the time of the Data Incident may claim an additional $100. An additional cash payment may be made to claimants if there is a remaining balance in the Settlement Fund after payments for valid Claims, settlement administration costs and expenses, attorneys' fees and expenses, and any Class Representative Service Award. This additional payment is currently projected to be at least $200. These cash payment amounts may not be $200, as they will be adjusted upwards or downwards depending on the amount of valid Claims. More information about the types of Claims and how to file them is available at the Settlement Website.
